

The Bridge

School News

Can you believe we are half way through our first year as Ysgol Gymraeg Trefynwy? The time is flying by! We are delighted to welcome our 5 new children, Ophelia, Florence, Hattie, Hugo and Max. They have all settled well, and are now firmly part of the 'family', sadly we're also saying goodbye to Tegwyn this half term as he and his family move – pob lwc!

We have had another busy half term, with the children learning about winter, how things freeze, and our emotions, and celebrating Chinese New Year and Santes Dwynwen day. Have a look on See-saw with your child to ask them about their learning.

We have developed a new reward system based on 4 key expectations, Speak Welsh, be kind to others and use kind words, make safe choices and listen to all adults and other children. The children 'croesi'r bont' (cross the bridge) throughout the day as we catch them displaying our school expectations. If your child comes home with a daffodil sticker, please praise them and ask them how they displayed our expectations.

We are thrilled with our new outdoor learning area now that the scaffolding has finally gone. Thank you to everyone who has contributed to developing the area. The children are loving having time to explore and experiment outdoors, although they do come home quite messy at times! (Sorry).

The work of the Parents and Friends of Trefynwy Association (PTFA)

Many thanks to the PTFA for all their help in developing the outdoor learning area. Advertisement and promotion of the school is a key priority for us all, with parents working tirelessly to distribute leaflets and talk to people about the success of our school. Staff have visited a range of pre-Nurseries in the area spreading the word that we are here, and we held a lovely open morning at the end of January. Please encourage anyone who wants more information or an opportunity to see the school to get in touch at any point.

Have a lovely half term. We look forward to welcoming the children back on March 3rd in their Welsh costumes for Dydd Gwyl Dewi (St Davids Day).
